About Us

The Lund London brand was created by British designer Daniel Lund Savage in 2016.

Driven by his passion for creating beautiful, planet-friendly home and giftware, and using his product development and sourcing expertise from years of working in the industry, Daniel launched the Lund London brand.

Originally working from his home in Kent with only a small team, Daniel has continued to grow both Lund London brand and team and today our products are stocked by retail outlets in over 60 countries around the world.

Since its launch 6 years ago, the Lund London range has evolved and flourished. For 2022 we launch our 'your drink, your way' collection, offering our customers options to choose to re-use in a range of ways suited to their lifestyle and needs. It is our mission to offer fantastic reusable products which are designed to last and protect our planet, as we believe single use plastics belong in the past.

As Creative Director, Daniel is constantly developing new design ideas to keep the range fresh.

"Developing new products is my passion. I believe the every-day items we use, either when we are at home or out and about in our daily lives should be beautiful things which we are proud to use."

"This season I am proud to launch the 'your drink, your way' collection. Building on our successful Skittle range we are launching new reusable bottles and cups, each with different features and functions so that our customers can find a beautiful, re-usable product to suit their lifestyle. And there's more to come, so watch this space!"

Sustainability

The environment and sustainability are a focus for so many people and businesses as it becomes apparent that we all need to do our part to protect our planet, and that's certainly true for us here at Lund London. As we grow and evolve as a company we continue to review the ways in which we can become more sustainable and reduce our impact on the planet.

Our product

The issues with plastic waste in our oceans are widely reported and according to some reports, plastic could outweigh fish in the oceans by 2050. At Lund London, we are committed to doing what we can to contribute to the reduction of single use plastic waste as we continue to offer customers a variety of stylish and convenient ways to choose to re-use.

Our packaging

Since launching our first collection in 2016, our team has been committed to ensuring our packaging is not only fit for purpose and beautiful, but also takes our environmental impact into consideration. We use recycled and recyclable materials and for each new product we always try to keep the packaging materials to a minimum to reduce waste.

Our impact

As part of our mission to reduce our impact on the planet, we have signed up to the Ecologi climate positive workforce scheme. So far we have planted over 2,000 trees and contributed to a number of climate change projects, achieving a 150 ton carbon reduction - the equivalent of 375 thousand miles driven in a car or 116 long haul flights! We are excited to watch our forest grow and to see the impact of the climate change projects we are supporting through our Ecologi membership.

Our future

We know there is always more we can do and are committed to continuing to improve our sustainability credentials.
