In the beginning

In 2016 two old school friends, Daniel Savage and Simon Henley, came together to form a new sustainable lifestyle brand, Lund London.

With backgrounds in product development, sourcing, sales and project management the duo brought to life their vision that beautiful designs don't have to come at a cost to the environment.

Through the evolution of concepts and designs, Lund London's 'Your Drink, Your Way' range was launched, offering a wide selection of stylish reusable mugs and bottles regularly refreshed with new designs like those seen in the Little Lund collection - a range of environmentally friendly products in fun designs, perfect for little ones.

Lund London's drink and tableware is designed to sit in harmony alongside the eco-friendly home and lighting collections to offer a complete selection of desirable giftware.
